ATTACKS

WEAPON	HIT	DAMAGE	NOTES
Storm Blade (+2 katana) HB	+13	1d10+7 slashing	Finesse, Versatile; held two-handed (Great Weapon Fighting). Mastery set by his stance. Sneak Attack works.
Tanto	+11	1d4+5 piercing	Dagger: Finesse, Light, thrown 20/60, Nick. Assassinations: a critical hit against anyone who hasn't noticed him.
Half Bow	+11	1d6+5 piercing	Shortbow, range 80/320, Vex. Fire arrows: +1d6 fire, and the target starts Burning.
Uchitsune's Longbow (+1) HB	+12	1d8+6 piercing	Range 150/600, Slow. Heavy arrow: +2d6, push 10 ft. Explosive arrow (3 a day): 10-ft blast, 4d6 fire, DC 19 Dex save for half.

Black Powder Bomb HB	DC 19	3d6 fire + 3d6 pierc.	Replaces one attack: 10-ft blast within 60 ft; Dex save for half. A failed save also knocks the target Prone.
Sticky Bomb HB	+11	6d6 fire	Replaces one attack. It sticks and blows at the end of the target's next turn; everyone within 5 ft takes 3d6 (DC 19 Dex save for half).
Blowgun Darts HB	+11	sleep, rage, poison	Replaces one attack. DC 19 save: sleep (Con, Unconscious 1 minute), hallucination (Wis, attacks the nearest creature), poison (Con, 2d8 and Poisoned).

THE WAY OF THE GHOST

His techniques, all HOMEBREW, built from the 2024 rules' own pieces (masteries, conditions, saves)

Won't stay down. Jin's willpower is his real superpower: left for dead at Komoda, thrown off Castle Kaneda's bridge, force-fed the Eagle's poison, and he got back up every time. On the sheet, before anyone can keep him down, they have to get through: Last Stand (once a day, a killing blow leaves him on 1 HP and heals 107), Iron Will (Resolve: up again with 22 HP; the first time each day is automatic), Relentless healing (four Second Winds, Rally, a 10d10 Recover Vitality pool, Hit Dice as a Bonus Action), Fighting Spirit (10 temporary HP) and, if all of that runs out, Advantage on death saves.

Resolve

The fuel for his techniques and his refusal to fall

He has 8 Resolve (Proficiency Bonus + Wisdom). He regains all of it on a long rest, and in battle he earns it back: +1 when he drops a hostile creature to 0 HP (once per turn), +1 when his parry makes an attack miss (once per round), +3 for a Standoff kill.

TECHNIQUE	COST	EFFECT
Rally	1	Bonus Action: regain 2d8 + 2 HP.
Heavenly Strike	1	When the Storm Blade hits: +3d10, and no Reaction can reduce or deflect it. A critical hit if the target is Prone, Frightened, Stunned or Incapacitated (staggered).
Way of the Flame	1	Bonus Action, needs a flask of incendiary oil: for 3 rounds the blade burns for +2d6 fire, sets targets Burning, and can't be reduced by Reactions.
Horse Charge	1	Mounted: his horse charges its full Speed in a line. Creatures in the way make a DC 19 Str save or take 2d10 bludgeoning and fall Prone (half, no Prone, on a success).
Iron Will	2	When he drops to 0 HP but isn't killed outright, he gets back up with 22 HP. The first time each long rest is automatic. After that he needs a Wisdom save (+8): DC 10, +5 for each earlier use.
Dance of Wrath	3	Action: three Storm Blade attacks, each +1d10 and impossible to reduce or deflect with Reactions. He can move 10 ft between them without provoking.

Sakai Stances

Stone, Water, Wind, Moon; Ghost of Yōtei's Most Wanted mode keeps all four

At the start of each of his turns he can switch stance (no action). The stance sets the Storm Blade's mastery, and once per turn, when it hits, he can add the stance's heavy strike.

Stone (swordsmen): Sap. Puncture: the target can't take Reactions until his next turn (guard broken).
Water (shields): Vex. Flowing Strikes: a shield adds nothing to the target's AC against him until his next turn; without a shield, +1d6.
Wind (spears): Topple. Typhoon Kick: he also kicks it 10 ft away.
Moon (brutes): Cleave. Whirlwind: +1d10 against Large or bigger creatures, and it's shoved 5 ft.

Standoff

"Who among you is the strongest?"

When a fight is about to start and he isn't hidden, he can call out one foe within 60 ft who can see and hear him. Before anyone acts, both roll Initiative (his with Advantage). If he wins, he strikes first: one Storm Blade attack with Advantage, and a hit is a critical hit (Sneak Attack and Assassinate apply). If he loses, the foe gets one attack on him first. Standoff Streak: when the strike drops its target, he gains 3 Resolve and can strike again at another foe within 10 ft, up to 2 more times (4 in the Sakai Clan Armor).

Ghost Stance

The Mongols' nightmare

Once he has dropped three hostile creatures this fight without taking damage in between (two in the Ghost Armor), or has assassinated their leader, he can enter Ghost Stance as a Bonus Action. For 1 minute, any creature left with 50 HP or fewer by a Storm Blade or tanto hit drops to 0 HP. The stance ends after three such kills, and every one of them Terrifies.

Assassination

The tanto from the dark

A tanto hit against a creature that hasn't noticed him is a critical hit. Chain Assassination: when that drops it, he can move 10 ft without provoking and strike another creature that hasn't noticed him, up to twice per turn, for three kills.

Terrify

The Ghost's reputation does half the work

When he kills with a Standoff, an assassination, a Heavenly Strike, in Ghost Stance, or with any kill while wearing the Ghost Armor, every enemy within 30 ft who sees it makes a DC 19 Wisdom save. On a failure it's Frightened of him for 1 minute, repeating the save at the end of each of its turns. Frightened soldiers run.

Deflection & the Senses

Perfect parries, the guiding wind, focused hearing

Deflect Arrows: Reaction when a ranged weapon attack hits him while he holds the Storm Blade: the damage drops by 1d10 + 16.

Focused Hearing: Bonus Action. Until his next turn he knows where every creature within 60 ft is, even through walls, unless it's magically silenced.

Guiding Wind: he can't get lost; the wind leads him to any place he has been or has had described. Playing his flute for a minute can nudge the local weather (clear, wind, rain or fog), at the DM's call.

WHO HE IS

Jin Sakai is the last lord of Clan Sakai. His mother died of illness when he was small, and his father was killed in an ambush on Iki Island while the boy looked on, unable to help, a guilt he carried for years. His uncle, Lord Shimura, raised him as a samurai. In 1274 the Mongol army under Khotun Khan landed on Tsushima. Shimura led Tsushima's samurai against it at Komoda Beach, and they were slaughtered. Jin was left for dead among them.

The thief Yuna dragged him back. When Khotun beat him in single combat and threw him from the bridge of Castle Kaneda, Jin understood honor alone would not save his people. He learned to strike from the dark, to poison, to frighten, and the islanders started calling him the Ghost. He freed his uncle, retook the castles and killed Khotun on his flagship.

For using poison, Shimura disowned him, and the shogun branded him an outlaw. Later, on Iki, he faced the Eagle, her poison and the memory of his father, and came out whole. Centuries later, people in Ezo still tell of a samurai with a storm blade who became the first shinobi.

LEGENDARY FEATS

- Left for dead at Komoda Beach, where the samurai of Tsushima died around him.
- Thrown off Castle Kaneda's bridge by Khotun Khan. Survived and came back for the castle.
- Freed Lord Shimura and retook Castle Kaneda; beat Ryuzo there and killed him at Castle Shimura.
- Killed Khotun Khan on his flagship at Port Izumi and ended the invasion.
- Beat Lord Shimura, the man who taught him the sword.
- Cut down Kojiro and his five best swordsmen (The Six Blades of Kojiro), and won the duels of The Heavenly Strike and Black Hand Riku.
- Survived the Eagle's poison and its visions, retook Fort Sakai, then beat the Eagle herself in a duel.
- One man the Mongol army feared: garrison after garrison, camp after camp, alone.
- Got back up every single time. That's why the sheet has Iron Will, Last Stand, Durable and Tough.

PERSONALITY

Traits: Quiet, dutiful, kind to the people he protects. He plays the flute and writes haiku.

Ideal: His people come before his honor, and before his name.

Bonds: The people of Tsushima. Yuna. Lord Shimura, even now. His father's memory.

Flaw: Guilt. He blames himself for his father and for every villager he couldn't save, and he won't stop until he drops.

APPEARANCE

Black hair tied back, a short beard, a samurai's bearing.

As the Ghost: dark armor, a hood and the Ghost mask. As Lord Sakai: the Sakai clan armor with its stag-horned helmet, the Storm Blade at his hip, his tanto and a bow over his shoulder.

BUILD NOTES

Fighter (Samurai) is Lord Shimura's training: stances, three attacks a turn, Fighting Spirit, and Wisdom saves for his willpower. Rogue (Assassin) is the Ghost: stealth, Sneak Attack, poison, the perfect dodge.

Level order follows the story, so his eighth Rogue level lands at character level 19 and the epic Boon of Recovery is legal.

Ability scores: 27-point buy (Str 12, Dex 15, Con 14, Int 10, Wis 13, Cha 8). The katana is homebrewed as Finesse so he fights on Dexterity like the game's Jin.

Power note: Ghost Stance, Standoffs and assassinations clear a room of soldiers. Against a single champion his edge is the parry, Heavenly Strike and the willpower to outlast them.

WHAT 5E CAN'T COPY

- Real-time parry and dodge timing. The Reactions stand in for it.
- Detection meters, the Legend meter, and enemies who cower at the sight of him. Terrify and the Ghost Armor carry that.
- The living weather, the foxes, the golden birds. Those are flavor for the DM.

Version: Ghost of Tsushima Director's Cut (Iki Island), plus his return as a playable character in Ghost of Yōtei's Most Wanted mode (October 2026). Researched from Fextralife, Push Square, Samurai-Gamers, Wikipedia, Game Informer and the PlayStation Blog. The fan wiki couldn't be reached, so a few minor details (his mother's name, his exact age) are left out.
