ATTACK	HIT / DC	DAMAGE	NOTES
HUMAN
Blaze Machete HB	+11	1d6+7 slashing + 1d6 fire	Scimitar with a fire mod: a hit sets it Burning. Dueling included; Sneak Attack works. (Laceration machete: bleeds.)
Fire Axe	+11	1d12+5 slashing	Greataxe, two-handed. Cleave: once a turn, a free swing at a second enemy within 5 ft.
Throwing Knives ×10	+11	1d4+5 piercing	Daggers, thrown 20/60, Nick. Some carry bleed, shock or explosive mods. Sneak Attack works.
Pistol, Shotgun, Crossbow	+9	1d10+3 / 2d8+3 / 1d10+3	Pistol 30/90. Shotgun HB 30/90, two shots per reload. Hunting crossbow 100/400, Push.

Dropkick	+11	6 bludgeoning	Charger: after a 10-ft straight run, +1d8 or knocked 10 ft back.
BEAST MODE
Claws ×3 HB	+11	1d10+8 slashing	Three per Attack action. Each hit heals him 7. A hit that leaves an ordinary foe at 15 HP or fewer kills it.
Beast skills HB	DC 19	2d10+5 to 3d10+5	Charged Smash, Aerial Smash, Ferocious Swipe, Battering Ram, Heavy Lift, Agonizing Roar: most cost meter (page 2).

Extra Attack (3 claws as the Beast). Sneak Attack +3d6 once a turn. Reckless Attack: Advantage on his Strength attacks and on attacks against him. Brutal Strike: trade that Advantage for +1d10 and a shove, slow or stagger (page 4).

BEAST MODE

His Path of the Beast, all HOMEBREW: the Volatile the Mother made of him, and the weapon the Baron tried to breed

In the game, the Beast meter fills as Crane lands hits, dodges, parries and takes damage, and a full meter keeps until he rests. The Beast breaks out on its own at first; Beast Controlled lets him call it, Apex Predator lets him call it early. A full-meter change heals him and cuts the damage he takes, then the meter drains, fastest for special moves. On this sheet his Rage is Beast Mode and runs on that meter, with no limit per day.

The Beast Meter

Six boxes, filled by fighting and drained by the Beast

Keeping. Boxes carry over between fights; a rest, or dropping to 0 HP, empties it.

Filling (outside Beast Mode only): one box per attack he hits with (the first hit each turn fills two: Beast Conquered), one the first time each round he's damaged, one the first time each round an attack misses him.

Unleashing. With six boxes, a Bonus Action: Beast Mode starts, he heals to full, and his roar can stun anyone close. Instinctive Pounce carries him half his Speed. (Before Beast Controlled, a full meter set it off by itself.)

Early. With 3 or more boxes he can unleash anyway (Apex Predator), but with no heal and no roar.

Draining. At the start of each of his turns as the Beast, one box drains (two before Apex Predator); special moves cost boxes and each kill refills one. When the last box goes, Beast Mode ends at the end of that turn, or at once if he's Incapacitated.

Again and again: whenever it fills, the Beast comes back.

☐☐☐☐☐☐

WHILE THE BEAST IS OUT

Unleashed. Changing on a full meter heals him to full.

Beast Unleashed. Every claw hit heals him 7 HP.

Hard to hurt. Resistance to bludgeoning, piercing and slashing damage, falls included.

Bare hands. Unarmed Strikes tear like claws: 1d10 + 8 slashing, three per Attack action. Black veins crawl over his skin.

Finishers. A claw hit that leaves an ordinary creature (no boss, no Chimera) at 15 HP or fewer tears it apart.

Monstrous body. Advantage on Strength checks and saves, +10 ft Speed, double jumps; Acrobatics, Perception, Stealth and Survival roll with Strength.

The cost. No weapons at all, and the grappling hook only through Hook Thrust. The meter can't fill while the Beast is out.

THE BEAST'S FOURTEEN SKILLS bought in the game with Beast Points from Chimera blood

SKILL	LVL	ON THIS SHEET (SAVE DC 19)
Beast	B3	Beast Mode itself: a full meter changes him, on its own until he learns control.
Beast Controlled	B6	He changes when he chooses: a Bonus Action with a full meter.
Furious Charge	B6	Bonus Action: Dash at +20 ft Speed; Opportunity Attacks against him have Disadvantage.
Battering Ram	B6	During a Furious Charge he runs through creatures: Str save or 3d10 bludgeoning and Prone.
Charged Smash	B6	Replaces an attack, 1 box: creatures within 10 ft make a Str save: 2d10 + 5 and knocked 15 ft back, or half.
Heavy Lift	B6	Beast Vision shows what he can lift: he hurls a boulder, car door or barrel up to 60 ft (+11, 3d10 + 5).
Launch	B6	1 box: one leap of up to 60 ft long or 30 ft high.
Aerial Smash	B10	1 box, landing from a leap or a 10-ft drop: creatures within 15 ft make a Dex save: 3d10 + 5 and Prone, or half.
Ferocious Swipe	B10	Action, 2 boxes: a 360° swipe, one claw attack against everyone within 10 ft; hits bleed 1d6 a turn until healed.
Beast Conquered	B10	A roar as he changes: enemies within 15 ft, Con save or Stunned until the end of their next turn. First hit each turn fills 2.
Beast Unleashed	B10	Every claw hit heals him 7, and every kill refills a box.
Hook Thrust	B10	1 box: he can fire the grappling hook while transformed and fling himself up to 60 ft.
Agonizing Roar	B10	Action, 2 boxes: enemies within 30 ft make a Con save or are Stunned until the end of their next turn.
Apex Predator	B14	He can change with 3 boxes (no heal, no roar); the meter drains one a turn instead of two.

THE EIGHT CHIMERAS

1	Reaper: a Demolisher with a gas mask fused to its head
2	Defect: a faster Demolisher that throws boulders
3	Mist: a taller, redder Banshee that fights in fog
4	Behemoth: a charging Demolisher that throws cars
5	Toxin: a supercharged Spitter
6	Matriarch: a Screamer with a Bolter's traits
7	Wraith: a boss Volatile that turns invisible
8	Colossus: a Demolisher with Spitter and Charger moves

Each drops a GSB sample; Olivia turns it into Beast Points. On this sheet, each is one Barbarian level.

A BEAST TURN

1. Unleash: back to full HP, a stunning roar, a 20-ft pounce.

2. Reckless Attack, three claws at +11 with Advantage, 1d10 + 8 each, healing 7 a hit.

3. Brutal Strike on one: +1d10, knocked 15 ft, and he follows.

All hits: about 46 damage and 21 HP back on top of the full heal. Six boxes at one a turn: about six rounds, fewer if he spends them, more if he kills.

THE RUNNER

What Harran taught him, and what he relearned in Castor Woods · HOMEBREW where the PHB doesn't already do the job

Freerunning

Rooftops, Dash, Active Landing, never touching the street

PHB pieces: Expertise in Athletics (+17) and Acrobatics (+15), Cunning Action (Dash as a Bonus Action), Charger's +10 ft on a Dash, and Second-Story Work (Climb Speed 40 ft): 90 ft a turn across the rooftops. HB Active Landing: no damage from a fall of 20 ft or less if he can roll out of it; a DC 15 Acrobatics check halves a longer one.

The Dropkick

The first Power skill, and his favorite since day one

The Charger feat (PHB): after running at least 10 ft straight at a creature, his first hit on it that turn deals +1d8 or knocks it 10 ft back. Kicked off a ledge, it falls. In Beast Mode the same kick lands with claws and the Beast's +3.

Grappling Hook HB

Earned back in Castor Woods ("Some Like It Dark"); tap to zip, hold to swing

Bonus Action (Fast Hands): fire it at a solid point he can see within 60 ft and he's yanked there in a straight line without provoking Opportunity Attacks. That run counts for the Dropkick. Upgraded, he can hook a Medium or smaller creature instead: DC 17 Str save or it's dragged 30 ft toward him and knocked Prone. Not in Beast Mode without Hook Thrust.

Survivor Sense HB

The pulse that marks loot, human enemies and special infected

Bonus Action, once per turn: until the end of the turn he knows where every creature and every useful item within 60 ft is, even through walls, unless magic hides it. (The game doesn't give a range; 60 ft is this sheet's.) Passive Perception 16 the rest of the time.

Takedowns and Camouflage

Stealth Expert; smeared in infected gore

Sneak Attack (3d6) with a machete or throwing knife, Reckless Attack for the Advantage, Cunning Strike to trip (then Head Stomp) or slip away. HB A Sneak Attack against a creature that hasn't noticed him is a critical hit. HB Camouflage: an action beside a fresh infected corpse; infected ignore him for 10 minutes or until he attacks.

UV Flashlight HB

The one thing Volatiles fear

A Bonus Action switches it on: bright light in a 60-ft cone. Volatiles and other night infected won't willingly enter it, and one inside at the start of its turn is staggered: no Reactions and half Speed until that turn ends. Creatures with Sunlight Sensitivity treat it as sunlight. It runs 1 minute, then needs a short rest to recharge.

Weapon Mods HB

Melee weapons only: tip, shaft and grip slots, plus a charm

Each melee weapon can carry one elemental mod: +1d6 damage of its type and an effect on a hit. Blaze (fire): Burning, 1d4 a turn until put out. Lightning (shock): DC 17 Con save or no Reactions and Speed 0 until its next turn. Venom (toxic): DC 17 Con save or Poisoned for 1 minute. Avalanche (freeze): −10 ft Speed until his next turn. Laceration (bleed): 1d4 a turn until healed. Blast: pushed 5 ft.

Bandages, Boosters, Morphine HB

Crafted in the field (Herbalism Kit, Alchemist's Supplies)

Bandage: Bonus Action, regain 2d8 + 4 HP; rare bandage 4d8 + 8. Boosters, Bonus Action, 1 minute: damage (+2 weapon damage), endurance (no Exhaustion from running or fighting), regeneration (5 HP at the start of each turn), resistance (Resistance to one damage type). Morphine, a rare drop from Volatiles: regain 6d8 + 12 HP.

Night Runs

Good night, and good luck

After dark, Volatiles hunt in packs, flank and call for help, and every kill is worth double. For the DM: night is when the UV light, Survivor Sense and the rooftops matter most, and a chase can go very wrong. Crane runs at night anyway.

Special Weapons HB

Survival skills and Castor Woods' oddities

Flamethrower: 15-ft cone, DC 17 Dex, 3d6 fire and Burning, half on a save; 10 bursts. Grenade launcher: a 10-ft blast within 150 ft, DC 17 Dex, 4d6; 4 rounds. Sawblade launcher: +9, 2d6 slashing that bleeds 1d4 a turn. EXPCalibur II, the secret sword behind the sigil puzzle: a +2 longsword.

The 4x4 HB

Efficient Driving, Collision Expert

His off-road pickup ploughs through hordes: every creature in its path makes a DC 15 Dex save or takes 4d10 bludgeoning and falls Prone. It runs on fuel scavenged from wrecks, and a repair kit keeps it going.

FIGHTING AS CRANE

As a man: Reckless Attack and two machete swings with Sneak Attack on the first hit, or a Dropkick off the grappling hook. Every hit fills the meter. The Bonus Action goes to Dash, the hook or a bandage.

The meter: it keeps between fights. Hold the Beast until he's hurt if he can afford to: a full-meter change heals him to full, and there will be another.

As the Beast: unleash, Reckless Attack, three claws healing 7 each, Brutal Strike on the best one. Battering Ram through a crowd, Aerial Smash off a roof, Agonizing Roar when he's surrounded, but every special move eats the meter.

When it drains: back to the machete, the hook and the rooftops, landing hits to fill it again.

WHO HE IS

Kyle Crane grew up in Chicago, ran track, served in the US armed forces and then worked as a mercenary, until the Global Relief Effort hired him to go into Harran, a city quarantined after a zombie outbreak, and recover a file from the warlord Rais. He was bitten the moment he landed. Jade Aldemir dragged him to the survivors of the Tower.

He learned to run the rooftops, and he chose Harran's people over his orders. He won Rais's arena and took his right hand, killed him on top of his own tower, and gave Dr. Zere's research to Dr. Camden instead of the GRE. In the Countryside (The Following) he found the Mother, a Volatile who could still think. He refused her, she forced her elixir on him anyway, and he killed her and walked away one himself, his mind still his own.

After years in hiding he ended up with the Baron, Marius Fischer, heir of the drug dynasty that owns Castor Woods in the Alps. For thirteen years Fischer experimented on him and bred Chimeras from his blood, then let him escape so Olivia could harvest more. Crane hunted all eight Chimeras, taking each one's blood into the Beast inside him. In the end the Baron mutated himself with Crane's GSB; Lydia scrambled his mind, and Crane drove a metal pipe through his heart. The GRE offered him his freedom. Crane, Aiden Caldwell and Lydia swore to bring the GRE down instead.

LEGENDARY FEATS

- Survived Harran from day one, bitten on arrival and kept alive on Antizin.
- Won Rais's arena and took his right hand with a machete; later killed him on his own tower.
- Killed the Mother after she forced her elixir on him, and kept his mind.
- Survived thirteen years of the Baron's experiments.
- Hunted down all eight Chimeras, from the Reaper to the Colossus.
- Killed the mutated Baron with a metal pipe through the heart.

PERSONALITY

Traits: Sarcastic and quick with a joke in Harran. Darker, quieter and more worn by The Beast. Competitive, but he doesn't brag.

Ideal: People over orders. He chose the survivors over the GRE's mission, every time.

Bonds: Harran's people: Jade, Rahim, Brecken, and Spike, who turned up again in Castor Woods. Olivia, Lydia and the Exiles, Aiden Caldwell.

Flaws: He gets attached to the people he's meant to use. The Beast doesn't always ask permission, and revenge comes first.

APPEARANCE

Harran: short brown hair, stubble, an athlete's build, his wristwatch.

Castor Woods: older (fans guess around fifty; the game never says) but still not grey. Wrinkles, a scar across half his face, scars from the lab and from Rais. One eye is a predator's, like a Volatile's; his right arm is wrapped in thorns; his old watch and Jade's necklace are wound around his left wrist. As the Beast, black veins crawl over him.

THE PEOPLE IN HIS LIFE

Jade Aldemir pulled him off the street on his first day in Harran. He still wears her necklace.

Rais (Kadir Suleiman), the warlord whose hand and life he took.

Spike, his old friend from Harran, turned up again in Castor Woods.

The Mother (Jasmine), the thinking Volatile who made him one too.

The Baron (Marius Fischer) kept him for thirteen years.

Olivia Bennet, the Baron's researcher, worked for him to save her infected father, then turned on him.

Lydia leads the Exiles, escaped test subjects, and can control infected with her mind.

Aiden Caldwell, Dying Light 2's hero, was held in the same lab. Crane set him free.

The latest version. Dying Light: The Beast (September 2025) is Crane's newest game, and in October 2026 Techland called it complete. Its free updates added New Game+, Nightmare difficulty, the Restored Land survival mode, and Legend Levels that buy more health, combat stats and a stronger Beast Mode after level 15, but no new Beast skills, Chimeras or story. He never appears in Dying Light 2; people there only talk about him. To play Legend Levels past 20, give him Epic Boons: Fortitude for the health, Combat Prowess for the rest.

BUILD NOTES

Fighter 1 is the soldier and mercenary he was, Rogue (Thief) 5 is the runner Harran made him, and Barbarian 14 is the Beast, one level per Chimera at the end.

Ability scores: 27-point buy (Str 15, Dex 15, Con 14, Int 8, Wis 10, Cha 8), then Soldier (+2 Str, +1 Con), Charger and two ASIs.

Power note: a full heal every time the meter fills, and 7 HP per claw hit, make him far harder to kill than any PHB barbarian. That's the Beast. The price is the stretches in between, when he's a man with a machete and an empty meter.

WHAT 5E CAN'T COPY

- Durability: his melee weapons wear out, and each takes only 3–5 repairs with scrap. Optional rule: a weapon breaks on a natural 1 until he repairs it.
- Day and night, and the Volatiles' fear of UV, are the DM's setting rules.
- Speed: on the rooftops he's faster than any table makes him.

Researched from Wikipedia, dyinglightgame.com and Techland's dev blogs, the Dying Light wiki (wiki.gg), TheGamer, KeenGamer, GamerGuides, PowerPyx, Gamepressure, Screen Rant and Game Rant. The game never publishes Beast Mode's heal, its duration or Survivor Sense's range: the full heal follows how it plays, and the other numbers are this sheet's.

Good night, and good luck.
