Piccolo

Raid boss · the Raditz saga (the opening of the manga's Saiyan arc, chapters 195–208) · CR 30 · Demon King Piccolo's last son, eight years old, Kami's other half, and the one who made the Special Beam Cannon

Built from the manga, with Kanzenshuu's chapter guides and the Daizenshuu where they add a number. "Raditz saga" is Funimation's name for the opening episodes; in the manga it's the start of the Saiyan arc, and this sheet runs from Raditz landing (chapter 195) to the night Piccolo destroys the moon (chapter 208). He's in the raid tier because of that night: a moon-buster, on the page, months after Raditz, at the same strength. The scouter readings are the manga's: 322 when Raditz finds him, 408 with the weighted turban and mantle off, and 1,330 for the charged Makankōsappō. Raditz's 1,500 comes from the Daizenshuu, not the page.

Design calls. A monster, like Madara, not a character: CR 30 with the tier's Legendary Resistance and Legendary Actions, written in exponents. He's an E2 creature (moon scale): his physical stats, HP and damage are in moon units, so against another E2 body it's ordinary 5e, and against anything else the damage converts (×100 per exponent; a ladder fighter's 30-point hit is 0.3 of a point to him, which is nothing). His mind isn't tiered. The d20 doesn't scale: one exponent apart, the higher creature has advantage on attacks and saves against the lower and the lower has disadvantage; two apart, the lower one can't touch it. The Special Beam Cannon is the whole sheet: it went through a Saiyan who outclassed him and the man holding him, and it goes through resistance and immunity alike. The price is what the manga shows: it takes time to charge, and it only landed when Goku held Raditz still.

Piccolo, the Demon King's son

Piccolo (Piccolo Jr.)

Medium Humanoid (Namekian, though nobody, Piccolo included, knows that yet) · 226 cm · the turban and the weighted mantle, the purple gi with the kanji for 'demon' on it · eight years old

Exponent 2 (moon) · AC 11, 14 once the weighted turban and mantle are off · HP 270^{E2} · Speed 40 ft, fly 80 ft · Initiative +3 · CR 30 (proficiency +9) · Legendary Resistance 3 a day (not against another raid boss)

STR	DEX	CON	INT	WIS	CHA
30 (+10)^{E2}	16 (+3)^{E2}	30 (+10)^{E2}	16 (+3)	20 (+5)	12 (+1)

Saves Str +19, Dex +12, Con +19, Wis +14 (no defense against genjutsu, and nothing in Dragon Ball gives him one) · Senses he feels power at a distance (chapter 195), and his hearing is sharp · Languages Common, Namekian (he doesn't know it yet)

Traits

Moon Body. Exponent 2: ladder hits convert to almost nothing (÷100), and only something like Night Guy, an E2 technique, really lands. Weighted Clothes. His first Bonus Action in a fight takes off the turban and mantle (AC 14). Regeneration. He regains 10^{E2} HP at the start of each of his turns. Regrowth (3 a day, Bonus Action): he regains 40^{E2} HP and regrows a lost limb. At the Budokai he tore off his own arm mid-fight and grew it back on the spot (chapter 189); the arm Raditz blew off came back without a fuss in chapter 205. Kami's Other Half. If he dies, Kami dies, and the Dragon Balls with him. Flight, Zanzōken, and the techniques he showed at the 23rd Budokai and won't use here: the giant form, antenna lightning, the stretching arms.

Actions

Multiattack. A barrage of five ki blasts, +19, range 300 ft, 2d10+3^{E2} force (the barrages of hand blasts he threw at Goku, chapter 183). Mouth Blast (Recharge 5–6): a beam through up to three creatures, 6d10^{E2} force, Dex DC 27 for half (the shot that went through Goku's shoulder at the Budokai). Makankōsappō (the Special Beam Cannon), for what his blasts can't handle (immunity, or something a tier above him): an action to charge, two fingers to his forehead, holding it with concentration (a hit means a Con save, DC 10 or half the damage, up to 30); on his next turn an action fires it: +19, 12d10^{E2} piercing, a critical hit on 19–20, and it ignores resistance and immunity. The Moon (once): an action destroys it. Anything that needs it, a Saiyan's Great Ape or the Infinite Tsukuyomi, is done.

Legendary Actions (3 a round)

Eye Beam. +19, 1d10+1^{E2} fire (the beams that cancelled Kuririn's blasts in chapter 172).

The feats, checked

Born of the Demon King

chapter 161, then the 23rd Tenkaichi Budokai, chapters 162–194 · three years old

The feat, checked. Demon King Piccolo spits out one last egg as Goku goes through him. Three years later 'Ma Junior' takes Kami's own Mafūba, reverses it and swallows the bottle with Kami inside. In the final against Goku he destroys distant mountains with a blast, goes giant, tears off and regrows an arm his own homing blast hit, turns all of Papaya Island into a wasteland with one shockwave, and puts a mouth blast through Goku's shoulder. He loses on a ring-out, to a headbutt. That's the top of the ladder already; the moon is still five years away.

Raditz

chapters 195–204 · eight years old

The feat, checked. Raditz walks through his shockwave at 322 and calls him no match. Allied with Goku, weights off, he reads 408; Raditz blows his left arm off with one blast of two. He charges the Makankōsappō while Goku stalls (1,020, 1,030, then 1,330), and the first shot misses: Raditz is too fast, and only his shoulder gets clipped. The second goes through Raditz and through Goku, who's holding him in a full nelson, because the Dragon Balls can bring Goku back. In the arena the same thing is true: against a raid boss nobody holds still, the beam breaks before it fires.

The moon

chapters 205–208

The feat, checked. He regrows the arm in front of Kame-Sennin, Kuririn and Bulma, takes the unconscious Gohan, throws him at a mountain (which Gohan destroys), and leaves him alone in the wild. One night the full moon comes up and Gohan becomes a Great Ape; Piccolo remembers what Raditz said and destroys the moon, then pulls off the tail and makes the boy a sword and a gi with the kanji for 'demon' on it. That's the feat that puts him in this tier.

In the arena

- Against the ladder he wins every one-on-one, Link included: the beam goes through Nayru's Love. Against all sixteen at once the ladder wins about half the time (Night Guy, the BFG, a lucky Crucible), and the rest are draws: in a crowd he never gets the quiet turn the beam needs, so Link outlasts him.
- Against Madara, raid against raid with both at their strongest (the Ten-Tails jinchūriki from the first turn: his revival was Black Zetsu's doing, not his own) and no Legendary Resistance on either side, Piccolo wins about 85% (3,000 fights). On direct feats he's the bigger hitter and the tougher body (the moon is his, on the page; Madara's moon level comes through a scaling chain), and he blows up the moon on his first action, which kills the Infinite Tsukuyomi. He doesn't need the beam here: five blasts a turn out-damage a turn of charging. Madara's wins are his hax: a Sharingan gaze that costs Piccolo a turn, Limbo's shadows he can't touch, a Truth-Seeking Ball that eats a blast a round.

A DM's dial

The Makankōsappō is the knob. At a table, let him charge it as a reaction-free bonus action over two turns instead of an action, and it becomes the threat it was against Raditz. And let the moon matter: a party that knows Piccolo can take it off the sky has an answer to anything that needs it.
